THE WEST RICHMOND DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Closes at Kenwood After a Successful Session.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 KENWOOD, VA., July 13.—The sessions of the West Richmond District Conference closed with to-day's meeting.
 After devotional exercises the Committee on Records made a report which precipitated a discussion of some length, and the report was held in suspense before adoption.
 Committee on Spiritual State of the Church and on Finance reported also at this session. Reports adopted. The election of delegates was gone into for representation of the district at the annual conference, and the following were chosen: Principals, John P. Branch, W. C. Ivey, Dr. R. E. Blackwell, W. A. Sinclair, alternates, G. J. Hunt, Eliott Campbell and A. R. Scott.
 The next session of the conference will be held at Bon Air the coming year. The session adjourned at 11:30 to listen to a sermon by Rev. R. N. Chanler, D. D., of Central Church, Manchester, Va. All committees reported at the morning session. Dinner was served at 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
 Afternoon session 2:30. Conference called to order by Presiding Elder Dr. B. H. Wilson. After devotional exercises the business of the session was taken up. Local preachers' licenses were renewed and issued. Mr. Maxey, of Bedford Academy, making application, and after the transaction of some routine business the conference adjourned until next summer.

CONFERENCE NOTES.
 The violent rains which have marked each day's sessions culminated in an unusually great downpour to-day, diminishing the attendance, which has been very large.

The sessions have been of great spiritual blessing to the church and full of happy associations.
 The spirit of love has prevailed throughout, and it was a joy to be present.
 The thanks of the conference were extended to the good people of the Ashland District, who spared neither time nor energy in looking after the well being of the delegates.

Ill in King William.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 ETNA MILLS, VA., July 13.—Miss Haradenia M. Gwathmey is critically ill at

"Burlington," the home of her brother, Joseph H. Gwathmey.

Mrs. James C. Sweet, of this place, is ill in her home.

FOUND DEAD. W. G. Walker, Mine Prospector Dies Alone.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 JETERSVILLE, VA., July 13.—When Mr. W. G. Walker failed to appear at the breakfast table this morning as usual, Mr. R. M. Farmer, with whom he was boarding, went at once to his room and found him dead. Death had evidently occurred about midnight.
 His son, who lives at Cape Charles, was immediately notified.
 The remains were viewed by R. A. Farmer, druggist, and several others. Death was evidently due to heart failure, as the deceased had been in feeble health for some time.
 Mr. Walker was quite an old man and a native of Philadelphia. He represented the "Serpentine Stone Company," who are operating quarries in this county. He was the first man to open up several different mica mines in this locality.
 The remains will be shipped to Philadelphia, Pa., for interment.
 Farmers and saw mill men are complaining heavily of too much rain. The prospects for a fine corn crop were never better.
 There is an unusually large crop of apples and peaches in this section.

30,000 READY TO LEAD BIG REVOLT

The Pennsylvania Arcanumites Threaten to Withdraw and Form Separate Organization.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Steps which may lead to the disruption of the Royal Arcanum, one of the strongest fraternal insurance organizations in the country, were taken at a meeting of representatives of 25,000 Pennsylvania policyholders at the Continental Hotel yesterday.
 Since the action of the Supreme Council of the order at Atlantic City last May, increasing the assessments of members forty years old and more, trouble has been brewing, and the meeting yesterday, which was arranged by William Wilhelm, of Pottsville, Pa., was the culmination of the dissatisfaction.
 It was decided at the meeting to arrange for a special meeting of the Grand Council of Pennsylvania, at which a move will be made looking toward cooperation with the Grand Councils of other States for calling a special meeting of the Supreme Council to rescind the action of the May meeting in regard to the increase in the assessments.

 Should the movement to have the special meeting of the Supreme Council rescind its action fail, it was declared yesterday that 30,000 of the 37,000 members of the order in Pennsylvania would withdraw and form a separate organization.
 It was stated at the meeting that the increased payments to be required of members more than forty years old was designed to drive out of the order the older members, who had been in the organization for many years and were largely responsible for its present prosperity.

MRS. BAXTER'S TROUBLES

Loses Her Suit and Takes Carbolic Acid By Mistake.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 LOUISA, VA., July 13.—After sitting all day and late into the night, the court last night gave a decision confirming the action of the board of supervisors in the Buxter-Gibson road controversy, which has attracted much attention in this county. This decision opens the road in question, but it is understood that Mrs. Buxter will take the case to the Supreme Court of Appeals.
 Mrs. Baxter seems to have a series of misfortunes following her. Besides losing this case, and while here attending court yesterday, she received a telegram saying that Mrs. T. S. Cruven, a relative, was dying at her home in Staunton. Then, upon retiring and suffering from extreme nervousness, owing to the strain she had been under during the day, she took one teaspoonful of carbolic acid instead of paregoric by mistake. Dr. Harry Porter was hastily summoned, and by prompt action and the use of a stomach pump saved her life. She is now resting quietly this morning.

The hard rains continue, and the farmers are very blue. Wheat is rotting in the shock, as it is impossible to thresh, and working tobacco and corn is out of the question with the ground so wet. All crops will be ruined without sunny days soon.

New Cashier.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 BROOKNEAL, VA., July 13.—Mr. John L. Wade is on a short visit to this village. Mr. Wade was the first cashier of the Bank of Brookneal. His health has not been quite good of late, and his resignation has been tendered and accepted.
 While he was taking a little rest, Mr. D. E. Mountcastle, of the First National Bank of Richmond, was acting cashier. Mr. John L. Noblett, of Blackstone, who has been elected cashier and is now at his post of duty.

VIRGINIANS GET HEARTY WELCOME

Pharmacists and Wives Received Wednesday By Governor of Rhode Island.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 13.—Virginia pharmacists, with their wives and daughters, to the number of one hundred strong, were heartily welcomed to this State by His Excellency, Governor George H. Dyer, as the guests of the Rhode Island Pharmaceutical Association. The visiting Virginians include the State Board of Pharmacy, J. L. Ayis, Harrisonburg, president; T. R. Miller, Richmond, secretary.
 The party toured the entire city in large drags during the forenoon yesterday, winding up with a visit to the State House, where Governor Dyer held a reception in their honor.
 At the Pougham Club, the swellest exclusive shore club on Narragansett Bay, the visitors ate a genuine clam dinner. A gavel made of red gum taken from the old Virginia Capitol was presented by the visitors to President Goff of the local association. Dr. Miller, of Richmond, making the presentation speech.
 To-day the Old Dominion party spent the time sightseeing in Boston, and to-night took the Merchants' and Miners' Line boat for the South.
